Withdrawal

- All withdrawal requests received into the DEWS support mailbox by 3 PM GST will be reviewed and vetted on the next working* day and any requests received after 3 PM GST will be reviewed on the second working day. Our DEWS support team will be in touch with the employee or beneficiary if any issues are identified or further clarification is required in relation to the request. Once our review has been completed successfully the request will be cleared and disinvestment will begin on the next working day. Where we have had to request additional information or clarification, once all outstanding items have been received the timeline of our review will be the same as though this were a new withdrawal request (as outlined above).
- Withdrawal requests cannot be processed until the employee's termination date, confirmed by the employer, has passed. If the employee's final contribution is being paid into DEWS after the employee's termination date, we will schedule the employee's withdrawal to take place after the final contribution has been settled.
- The withdrawal payment must be made to a bank account in the employee / beneficiaries name. Regulatory and anti-money laundering screening activities are required and may result in additional processing time.
